

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: AZIBA, Peter Inetiabor

DEPARTMENT: Pharmacology and Toxicology

COLLEGE: Pharmacy.

GENDER: Male

MARITAL STATUS: Married

STATE OF ORIGIN: Edo State

LOCAL GOVERNMENT: Esan North- East

E-MAIL peteraziba@yahoo.com Tel: (+234) 8037234145

FIRST ACADEMIC APPOINTMENT: Lecturer 1 May, 1995.

PRESENT POST: Professor

UNIVERSITY/HIGHER EDUCATION (WITH DATES):

- a) University of Ibadan, School of Science Laboratory Technology, 1996-1981
- b) Nigeria Institute of Science Technology- Fellowship (FNIST) in Pharmacology
- c) University of Ibadan- Master of Science (M.Sc.) degree in Pharmacology 1986-1987.
- d) University of Ibadan- Doctoral Studies (Ph.D) in Pharmacology, 1987-1994

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION WITH DATES:

- (a) West African School certificate/GCE O level, 1975.
- (b) Fellow Nigeria Institute of Science Technology, 1986
- (c) Master of Science (M.Sc.) Degree in Pharmacology-1987.
- (d) Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) Degree in Pharmacology 1994.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATION & DIPLOMAS (With Dates):

Associate Membership of Institute of Science Technology, London,(AIST)-1981
Fellowship of Nigeria Institute of science technology In Pharmacology.-1986
Member West Africa Society of Pharmacology 1989 to date
Member, South Africa Society of Basic and clinical pharmacology 2006 to date
Member, British Pharmacological Society 2010 to date.
Member, America Society of Experimental and Therapeutics (ASPET).

SCHOLARSHIPS, FELLOWSHIP AND PRIZES:

- Faculty of Science Best Graduating student (LTTS) 1981, University of Ibadan
- Recipient of Travelling grants, British Pharmacological Society (Bain Memorial grant),(2009)

- Recipient of Travelling grants, British Pharmacological Society(Bain Memorial grant (2010)
- Recipient of Travelling grants, British Pharmacological society (Bain Memorial (2010).
- International Union of Pharmacology (IUPAC) Travelling Fellowship grant, 2010.

HONOURS, DISTINCTION AND MEMBERSHIP OF LEARNED SOCIETIES

- (a) Recipient of the Prize Best Academic Student, Faculty of Science, University of Ibadan (LTTS)1981.
- (b) Marquis WHO is WHO 1988
- (c) Guest Speaker, at the 5th All Africa Pharmacological Congress July 2012 in Ghana
- (d) International Union of Pharmacology(IUPHAR , Facilitator For Integrative Organ System Pharmacology(IOSP)
- (e) Member Education Section Committee) of IUPHAR since 2007
- (f) University of Swaziland Vice-Chancellor's letter of commendation, 2008
- (g) Best Lecturer Of Pharmacology Award (OOU), 2009 -2015
- (h) Editorial Adviser to Many Scientific Journals
- (i) Member Editorial Board & Reviewer of the following Journals:
 - Associate Editor Journal of Pharmacology &Toxicology(Asian Network of Scientific Information& Academic Journals Inc, Science Alert)
 - Journal of Medicinal Plants
 - Asian Journal of Biological sciences
 - International Journal of Pharmacology.
- (j) Reviewer of Several Other African journals both local and International.
- (k) External Examiner to Universities of Ibadan, Ilorin, Lagos, OAU Ife. (under graduate & postgraduate students in Pharmacology).

INTERNATIONAL APPOINTMENTS

- (i) Senior Research Fellow, University of Swaziland, Southern Africa, 2004-2008

Appointed on Contract to help set up a Bio-Assay Laboratory in a Pharmacology Unit for the Swaziland Institute of Medicinal Plant Studies, University of Swaziland, and to train Graduate Students in Pharmacology.(Masters and co- Supervision of Doctoral student). This was for me an assignment which I creditably discharged, earning a commendation letter from the Vice-Chancellor. During this period I also travelled far and wide collaborating with leading scholars in my field.

(iii) Appointed Honorary Tutor, Department of Pharmacology and Pharmacy at the University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong. China (2015). I had the opportunity to collaborate and learn new skill and techniques in Cardiovascular Pharmacology with focus on the biological actions of Endothelium in moderating its effect on blood vessel. This was a collaborative work with a renowned Scholar in Pharmacology, Professor Van Houtte in his laboratory.

MEMBERSHIP OF LEARNED SOCIETIES

Member, West African Society of Pharmacology.

Member, Nigerian Institute of Biology.

Member, South African Society of Basic & Clinical Pharmacology.

Member, British Pharmacological Society.

Member, American Society for Pharmacology & Experimental Therapeutics

Member, Royal Society of Chemistry, UK

A Committee member of Integrative Organ Systems Pharmacology, International Union of Pharmacology (IUPHAR).

Fellow, Nigerian Institute of Science Technology.

Fellow, Royal Society of Biology, UK

Member, Nigeria Field Society.

DETAILS OF TEACHING EXPERIENCE AT UNIVERSITY LEVEL (1995 till date)

Teaching Basic Courses in Pharmacology to:

- i. MB.CH.(Medical students 400 level)
- ii. B. Pharm, Pharmacy students (300 – 500 level)
- iii. Bachelor of Science, Pharmacology students (200 – 400 level)
- iv. BNS, Nursing students
- v. BLMS, Medical Lab. students

A) COURSES TAUGHT

- General introduction to Pharmacology (Historical Development)
- General Principles and Concepts of Pharmacology
 - i Pharmacodynamics Principles
 - ii. Pharmacokinetic Principles
 - iii. Receptor Theory
 - iv. Drug Receptor Interaction
- Drugs Acting on the Peripheral Nervous System (Autonomic Nervous System)
- GIT Pharmacology.
- Pharmacology of Inflammation and Pain.
- Drugs Acting on the Central Nervous System (Cardiovascular System)
- Endocrine Pharmacology.
- Chemotherapy of Infectious Diseases.
- Haemopoietic System.
- Harmful effects of Drugs (Toxicology)
- Pharmacology of Sickle cell Anaemia
- Bio membranes (Postgraduate Biochemistry students)

EXPERIMENTAL PHARMACOLOGY (PRACTICALS)

This includes demonstration in skills and techniques in the following:

- Dose Response Relationships using Isolated Tissue Organ Bath Methods
- Studies on Determination of Drug Antagonism using Isolated Tissue
 - preparation
- Studies on Drugs acting at the Neuromuscular Junctions e.g Rat nerve-
- Diaphragm Finkleman Experiments of rabbit isolated jejunum.
- Effect of Drugs on the Pendulum movement of the GIT
- Various Assay methods (2 by 2, 4 by 4 methods)

- Assay on cholinesterases
- Effects of Drugs on blood pressure (invivo)
- Studies on induced pain and inflammation
- Analysis of experimental results, evaluations (pA₂, pD₂, Ec₅₀, etc) calculations and plotting of graphs
- Various drug evaluation studies using prototype and medicinal agents.
- Screening of various medicinal plants for pharmacological activities

PROMOTION/APPOINTMENT:

Appointed Lecturer I (1995)
 Appointed Senior Lecturer (1998)
 Promoted Associate Professor (2001).
 Appointed Professor (2015)

STUDENTS SUPERVISION

- Supervised over 50 Undergraduate students' projects for B.Sc and B.Pharm.
- Supervised 1 Fellowship thesis
- Supervised 3 Master's degree students
- Co-supervised two postgraduate (Ph.D) students

PREVIOUS WORK EXPERIENCE

Between 1975 -1994, I trained as student technologist in the Laboratory Technology Training School, University of Ibadan. In 1982, I was appointed a Technologist and rose through the rank to Principal Technologist. My work schedule then was organising and demonstrating Basic Pharmacological Practicals /Techniques to Bachelor, Medical and Pharmacy students in the Laboratory. This exposed me to virtually most of the skills and techniques in Basic Pharmacology Experiments (In-vitro and In-vivo techniques). During this period, I was also engaged in Academic studies at the post graduate level in Pharmacology, leading to a fellowship award, Master's and Doctorate Degrees in Pharmacology with emphasis in Autonomic Nervous system Pharmacology. In 1995, after almost twenty years in Laboratory, I was appointed Lecturer I at the Ogun State University, now Olabisi Onabanjo University, where I worked for Twenty years except for the period 2004-2008, when I was invited to work as Senior Research fellow, at the University of Swaziland in Southern Africa

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Appointed Head of Department of Pharmacology 1995 – 2001
- Re – appointed, HOD, Dept of Pharmacology 2009-2015
- Senate Member, Olabisi Onabanjo University
- Member, Academic Curriculum Committee of OACHS
- Faculty Representative, Editorial Board of African Journal of Pharmaceutical and Medical Sciences
- Appointed, Chairman Faculty Research and Scientific Committee.
- HOD, Dept. Of Pharmacology & Toxicology, IUO, 2015 till date
- University Coordinator of Central Animal House, IUO
- Member of the University Strategic Planning Committee, IUO
- Member of the Quality Assurance Committee, IUO
- Member of the Central Laboratory Committee, IUO
- College Coordinator of the Research, Seminar/Workshop Committee, IUO

PROFESSIONAL: Nigerian Institute of Science Technology (Now NISLT).
National Publicity Secretary from 1989- 1994.
Secretary, Examination Board from 1989- 1994.
Member of NIST (NISLT) accreditation team from 1989- 1994

RESEARCH

a) Completed:

- Studies on the disposition of indomethacin in inflammatory exudates and blood in rat
- Studies on neurotransmitters in the epididymal and prostatic end of the rat vas deferens
- Pharmacological screening of some Swaziland medicinal plants used in herbal practices
- Some studies on receptors and ion channels in smooth muscle contractions (elucidation of mechanism of action of some prototype drugs)

b) In Progress

Drug development:

Screening of medicinal plants for (i) anti-inflammatory activities (ii) for analgesic properties (iii) Sedative effects (i) receptor effects

c) Dissertation and Thesis

- Disposition of indomethacin at inflammatory exudates site and blood in rat (Fellowship Dissertation),1986
- Effect of BayK 8644 on electrically stimulated mice vas deferens- M.Sc,1987
- Invitro evaluation of the action of Chloroquine and related compounds on Contractile processes in smooth muscle- Ph.D, 1994

GRANTS /AWARD.

- Recipient, 2009 Bain Memorial bursary Award, British Pharmacological Society, UK
- Recipient, 2012, Bain Memorial bursary Award, British Pharmacological Society, UK.
- International Union of Pharmacology (facilitator IOSP) Travelling Grants to Kenya 2010.
- Tutor Award/ Grant: The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong , China February – May 2015.
